

P. C. Sawall,
February 19, 1858.

will sign it. This will be I presume in a few days.

If you can be preparing your answer before the formal letter arrives

Yours most truly

J. C. Sewall

you the income of the property you can draw more if you need it. Indeed you can withdraw all funds the trustees if you desire it, and you can dispose of the property by will as you please.

The letter to you from the trustees I have drafted. Mr May has seen it & is satisfied. I am only waiting for Mr Quincy to put his critical eye upon it. If he is content, then the trustees

To Mr. S. G.

18

Washington D.C.

Feb. 19, 1888

My dear friend

I send you a copy of the first instrument which I believe conforms to what we talked over.
Messrs Coffin & Endicott have examined the draft & are satisfied.

I wish you and your son to examine it, and if you agree to it, it can be executed.

You see that though it only speaks of paying